Superintendent, HAROLD E. MOORE

The chronicle of Dr. Harold E. Moore's life is replete with achievements as one of the state's foremost educators. He is very much concerned with stimulating interest in the teaching profession, toward which goal he organized the first unit of the Future Teachers of America in Indiana.

In accepting the local school administrative position, Dr. Moore relinquished a major post at Indiana University where he served as principal of the university school, operated in connection with the university as an experimental teaching laboratory—this in addition to his regular teaching duties. He has also written extensively for school publications.

Dr. Moore likes Mishawaka High School and characterizes it as a "friendly school with some fine customs and precedents". On the schedule for near future action are improvements in all city schools in keeping with modern progressive educational methods.

the spirit of 1947

Mishawaka has been drawn into the whirlpool of seeking toward better and happier living which is bearing down on American institutions. More and more a bond of unity is being forged between city and school as the contagious spirit of high school youth paints the town maroon and white. Our lofty tower has become a landmark of community pride.

MHS joins hands with our city to become an after-school-hours mecca for increasing numbers of interested citizens. High schoolers and townspeople alike crowd the stadium and the gymnasium for the thrill of a winning pass or the suspense of a closely fought basketball battle. The vocational shops and the classrooms work overtime to serve evening students and Indiana University Center personnel, and special attention is given to veterans. The school cafeteria banquets many a hungry civic organization. Lincoln-way East has a flavor of Broadway when grease-painted thespians amaze their audiences with the perfection of their dramatic performances. The vesper service has brought beautiful solemnity to the Christmas season for many years. This year the people leaving the auditorium were deeply moved by the sight of the flood-lit building enchanced by the newly fallen snow. MHS alumni planned and executed the lighting which caused motorists by the dozens to stop in passing in order to enjoy the effect. Debaters, junior Rotarians, and the string ensemble entertain and carry the spirit of youth to groups of citizens.

Three-thirty bells send a vanguard of high-spirited students hurrying down to four o'clock jobs in almost every

an experienced administrator

Mr. Russell R. Myers, as principal, performs with expertness the duties of the responsible office he holds at Mishawaka High School. When problems of the present or the perplexing future have caused us to seek his counsel, we have found in Mr. Myers a friend and a philosopher who always offers the best of advice and guidance. We shall appreciate even more fully in years to come our indebtedness to Mr. Myers for the wisdom and foresight of his efforts in making MHS an honored and valued institution.

a friendly counsellor

Dean of Girls, LYNETTA WILSON

A bright smile and a cheering "What can I do for you?" greet those who enter the office of Miss Lynetta Wilson, dean of girls. As advisor, her real work begins with personal and vocational counselling, preparing recommendations for colleges, placing girls in jobs, and advising them in problems of family relations and personal adjustment.

an assistant principal

Mr. Frank Chapman is in charge of checking attendance for boys and sees to it, as the dean of boys, that they walk the "straight and narrow". Along with his routine duties, he interviews parents, directs fire drills, and acts as chaperon for dances and club activities.

Assistant Principal, FRANK CHAPMAN

store in town. The Ball Band has worked out an arangement through which qualified students can work part time and receive regular pay plus school credits.

The spirit of cooperation and the familiar adage, "Two can live more cheaply than one", have prompted the proposed Mishawaka-Penn Township school corporation merger. Crowded school conditions and the need for similar building programs prompted the two school units to consider this plan which will bring advantages to all.

Right here we should like to thank the citizens of Mishawaka, especially the east-enders, for patiently tolerating our bold flings—the way we monopolize the library at source theme time, invade the busses, or disturb the serenity of the night with wild shouts proclaiming a Caveman victory. In other ways, too, we unintentionally create annoyances, but we'll outgrow it and you'll be proud of us yet!

the Student Council will do it!

Under the competent leadership of John Wedsworth, assisted by Pat Berry, Morgan O'Dell, and Donna Weber, the student governors have considered a number of propositions and have approved some of them. School and town leaders alike praised the council's resolution to prohibit the drinking of intoxicating liquors at athletic contests. Arrangements for purchasing books at the school store were improved, eliminating considerable confusion and tiresome waiting. More and more problems which arise are being referred to the council for consideration and Miss Wilson, as sponsor, finds the demands of council business encroaching on the dean's time.

Properly supported, the Student Council will be a potent voice for the welfare of all. It needs the thoughtful backing of the entire student body to carry the resolutions into practice. The policeman stationed at the corner of Lincolnway and Studebaker streets as a safety measure was unsuccessful because the students wouldn't cooperate.

After vigorous and smart campaigning, Walt Triest, Larry Hoffman, Mary Amaral, and Donita Emmert were chosen next year's officers in the recent elections.

introducing the juniors

Mishawaka High School
June 1947

Dear Anne,

So you're coming to MHS next year! I'm so glad and I'm sure you'll like it. You'll be a senior, too, won't you? Then, of course, you'll want to know something about your new classmates. They're a fine group of kids.

First I'll present Rhea Davis. Rhea is president of the junior class. He works on the stage crew, but still finds time for fun. Bob Logan is our vice-president. All Bob has to do in a crowd is meow and everyone knows who it is. "Zu" Osmundson, secretary, is always laughing and is a ready friend of everyone. "Joanie" Bowman, treasurer, had a major part in the class play, "A Murder Has Been Arranged", as did Bob. Bob was co-starred with Bill Etherton, our oratorical wizard, in the part of a young journalist, Jimmy North. Bill, however, doesn't spend all his time on dramatics. He plays on the tennis team and in intramural basketball. Jim Cullen is our tennis varsity squad member. Boy, can he play!

Bill "You can't win all the time" Cambron also plays tennis, although he isn't on the team anymore. Bill is president of the Junior Hi-Y and went with Rhea to the state conference at Kokomo last fall. Many boys are active in Hi-Y, among them Elwood Beehler, "Red" Fry who takes Kay Wilson to all their shindigs, Joe Stuller, Dick Schiffer whose constant companion is Garth Wallace, John Moore, "Cod" Philotoff, and Bill Poure. I like the girl's Hi-Y, the Y-Teens, in which I am a member of the dramatic group. Marilyn Stout, the Junior Inter-Club Council member, was elected president of the Twin City Council and we're very proud of her. Helen Ganser, the sergeant-at-arms of our organization, is a quiet girl, but at a hard fought basketball game, she can get as excited as the rest of us.

And then, Anne, we have several members of the class who are known for some special characteristic, for instance Quinto Squadroni with his big blue eyes. Our chemistry friend is Bob Warstler—we expect him to blow up his basement laboratory some day. Tom "Honey Chile" Moore, our southern Indiana classmate, has a way with the Latin teacher and takes over the class whenever Miss Barracks leaves the room. Every school has its gum chewing crooner; ours is Phyllis Hayden. We even have a little gremlin in the class, a girl by the name of Libby Hennighausen. She has a crown of fluffy hair, an impish grin, and pint up-pointed glasses which make her look like a pixie. The most beautiful golden red hair belongs to Alberta Schricker who must have a secret way of keeping it lovely. Two apt speech students are Walt Triest and Ethel Draper, both of whom participated in the American Legion Oratorical contest which was won by Bill Etherton. Bill also won the county, district, regional, and zone contests, and placed third in the state. Dorothy Hendrickson, a champion bookkeeper, took care of the class money in the magazine subscription drive which Ernie Barron easily won with her ability as a saleswoman.

We're a lively bunch, especially in sports. Of course we all can't excel in them, but we can give credit to those who do. Our most ardent sportresses are Lois "Louie" Middleton, Pat Callsen, and Betty "Silly Bill" Sill, the president of the G. A. A. These kids, along with several others, including myself, are the proud Thespians of the junior class. The others are Wayne "Lover" Wilhelm, who has played everything from a Chinese lover to a murdered man; "Elli" Liff, the murderer, and vivacious Val Kamm, his accomplice. Val won the county Anti-T. B. Speech contest in her sophomore year. Mary Sandvold is another accomplished actress. Bill Etherton and Reva Brown are the junior members of the debate squad and they do very well at it. Reva is a magician with words. Two of the best workers on the play committees were the quiet Doris Davis, who did the property work, and Jane Charnoski, who sold more tickets than anyone else.

Ginny Parrott and Marty Fuller are our foremost journalists, having been elected to Quill and Scroll in their sophomore year, after working on the Alltold staff. Juniors on this year's staff are Dolores Gist, Janet Lee Knoblock, editor in chief, Lois Gradeless, Norma Burgeson, and Reva Brown. Lois and Alexia Hall are the class beauties and were elected to the Queen's court last fall.

Something you won't want to miss when you come to MHS is the vesper service. Lots of juniors had parts, but the outstanding feature of the program was a carol solo by Jim Leonard. Other junior soloists were Phyllis Daugherty and Beulah Fry.

The Biology and Chemistry sections of the Science Club have juniors at their heads. The Biology chairman is Jim Miller and Red Hoffman heads the Chemistry section. "Doc" Arata, Bill Hughes, and I comprise the program committee. Ever think of becoming a teacher? If so, I refer you to Ginny Rea, who is president of the Future Teachers and could give you some valuable pointers. Two members of the class are officers in the Commercial club. They are Shirley Orser, secretary, who is a barrel of fun and Mary Amaral, membership chairman, a dark haired lassie with a winning smile.

These, Anne, are some of your future classmates. I've told them about you and they are prepared to welcome you in grand style when you arrive next fall. So good-bye until then.

choir presents music to community

The sacred beauty of the Christmas vesper service is a traditional part of the Yuletide celebration for many people of the community, and also for its performers, the high school a capella choir. The members of that group will always remember the joyous thrill of proclaiming the Christmas message in song with living pictures as background. Another annual presentation featuring the choir is the Spring Concert. The girls especially anticipate the evening for they wear spring formals for the occasion. The music department, under the supervision of Miss Lucine Jones, sponsored a novel program this year. Three soloists, alumni of the school, were presented in a concert. This program, as well as the others sponsored by the department, was well-received by music lovers of the community.

The Cecelians, a selected group of girls chosen from the choir, is an exceedingly active organization. The girls sang many times for civic groups and for churches of the community. They give a great deal of time to practice and to performing, with very little renumeration. These students are definitely an asset to the community and a credit to the high school music department.

band capably performs varied duties

Besides persistent practice in drilling and marching to cheer our school to athletic victories, our versatile and energetic band presents several concert programs. This season greater stress was placed on variety drilling and the rudiments of marching than on the picture-making tactics which are generally used. This organization of musicians annually presents its winter and spring concerts and an assembly program. The male quartet which was composed of Morgan O'Dell, Ronald O'Dell, Fred Masten, and Richard Anderson, was featured on several occasions. Mr. Walter Bowers, the band director, strives to help his students better to understand and appreciate music.

The National Honor Society is a goal looked to by sopohomores and freshmen, and attained by a small percentage of juniors and seniors. Up to this time it has been a fairly inactive club, holding two inductions a year. However, this year, movements have been made towards enlivening the staid society. An important project is that of securing college pamphlets and bulletins for the use of N. H. S. members. Election of officers is held at the beginning of each semester, and officers for the first semester of this year were Ray Wardell, president; Cloyd Partridge, vice-president; Phyllis Albright, secretary. Second semester officers are Cloyd Partridge, president; Chad Smith, vice-president; Mary Walsh, secretary; Hattie Steffens, treasurer. Mrs. Lora Kohler is the sponsor.

"Act well your part"; these tried and true words of Shakespeare's are embedded deep in the mind of every Thespian. Not all Thespians charm audiences from behind the footlights, however. Many of them hit their stride in the fields of costuming, properties, or stage sets. Two initiations are held each year. There is a series of monthly meetings at members' homes, and at the end of the year there is a banquet honoring departing seniors. Thespians take active parts in the two class plays, and present, in cooperation with the Speech Club, the Thespian—Speech Club play. Miss Emily Davidson, able director of school plays, is the club's sponsor. Robert Futter is president; Phyllis Albright, vice-president; Alice Baldwin, secretary-treasurer; and Gail Kersh, scribe.

Room 135 is one of the busiest rooms in the whole school, for it is the home of the Alltold. Here Miss Leila Heimbach and the editorial board hold sway and through their hands pass all the news of the school year. Perhaps the most interesting job belongs to the inquiring reporters who go around asking questions about people and what they are doing. One of the most important activities for the Alltold is a subscription drive held at the beginning of each semester. At that time the busy beavers on the Alltold staff canvass every room for subscriptions. An ever popular part of the paper is the "dope" column, to which students faithfully send newsy items. The Alltold does an excellent job of covering every phase of school life.

Membership in the national honor society for high school journalists is gained by way of the Alltold and Miskodeed staffs. The prospective members are chosen in the early spring on the basis of journalistic achievement and the process of elimination is climaxed by an impressive candlelight ceremony.

With lots of enthusiasm and ambition the 1947 Miskodeed staff got under way late in September. The staff consisted mainly of greenhorns who didn't know a "dummy" from a senior. Thanks to the endurance and patience of Miss Lola Jane Rosenberger, yearbook sponsor, we finally learned, after many false starts, just what makes a yearbook tick. We were initiated into the intricacies of layout, hard and plastic bound covers, picture identifying, personal interviews, and budget and subscription rates at a speed which made our heads spin.

There were some hard workers who didn't get in the picture. Betty Scott and Betty Figgins did a heroic job of typing; Beverly Hunter worked on circulation. Alice Aaldwin, Hattie Steffens, and Nancy Schnabel made appointments and collected fees in the senior rooms. John Moore worked for a while on sports writing, and a whole mob of seniors took subscriptions in the senior rooms, while the Student Council representatives covered the underclassmen. Delores Smith and Irene Okal, juniors, did a beautiful job of pasting pictures.

speech club

The Speech Club is an organization of students having an interest in dramatics, whether it be plays, pantomimes, or script writing, and who desire to become Thespians. Once a year a grand party takes place and would-be Speech Clubbers try out before the old members, and if their tryouts are successful they become members. A feature of this year's Christmas season party was a grab-bag of corsages made of tiny pine cones, and holly leaves. The Speech Club assists the Thespians in presenting the Thespian-Speech Club play and together they give a banquet in the spring. Miss Emily Davidson, an energetic, talented dramatic coach is sponsor of the Speech Club. Officers are Nancy Jo Shirk, president; Ray Wardell, vice-president; Sally Chamberlain, secretary-treasurer.

debate squad has busy season

"Worthy opponents, and honorable judge," with these familiar words the 1946-47 debate squad settled into action. The reading of numerous references, thorough dog-earing of the debate manual, and participating in practice debates climaxed in the first of a series of twelve conference debates. In addition to debating competitively, the students performed several times for civic organizations in the community. The national debate topic for the year was "State Medicine". The club's able coach, Mr. Douglas Hall, strives to cultivate in the students who participate suspension of judgment, sportsmanship, and the techniques of argumentation.

engineering club

There are many boys who enjoy working in the shops, and the Engineering Club provides a splendid opportunity for working with the valuable tools and intricate machinery belonging to the school. The members meet twice a month on Tuesday evenings when each boy works on a personal project. Mr. Warring and Mr. Sprague are the sponsors, and the officers are Chester Ewaska, president; Francis Dosmann, vice-president; and Kenneth Schroeder, secretary-treasurer.

future teachers of america

Any student interested in becoming a teacher may become a member of the Future Teachers of America, which was organized by those faculty members who were becoming alarmed by the scarcity of teachers. Every effort is made to encourage these future leaders. Among the interesting programs of the year was a visit from the Future Teachers of America organization of Manchester College. Many of the members go to the grade school to help teachers and to observe teaching methods. Officers are Virginia Rea, president; Dorothy Steinke, vice-president; Joan Kurzhals, secretary; and Bill Jennings, treasurer. Miss Emily Barracks is the sponsor.

Miss Alice Baker, besides being art instructor at M. H. S. and the art supervisor in the Mishawaka Schools, is also sponsor of the Art Club. There are many students with talent who cannot begin to realize their capabilities in the art classes which are crowded with such a variety of talents and Miss Baker is making a tremendous effort to give these students extra attention. Any student interested in art is eligible. The 40 members of this club work at many interesting projects. They made their yearly trip to the Chicago Art Institute and sponsored a local Lena the Hyena contest, which Jim Holderman won by sketching a particularly atrocious female. Officers are Suzanne Kamm, president; Charles Sailor, vice-president; Norma Burgeson, secretary-treasurer.

science club

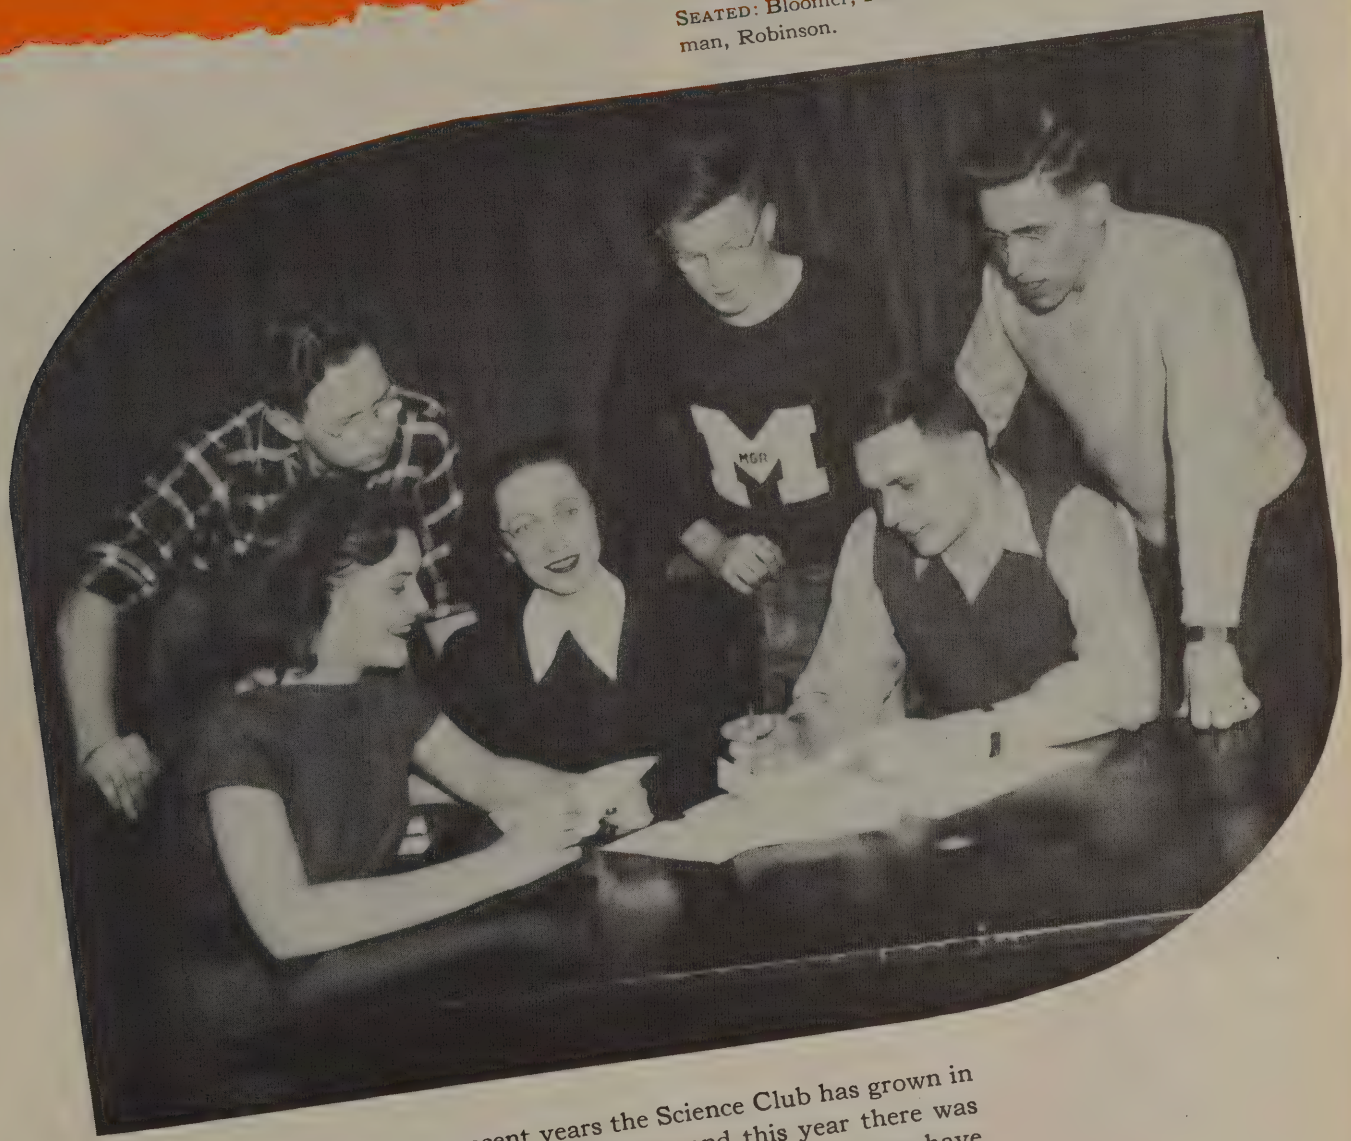
SCIENCE CLUB OFFICERS
SEATED: Bloomer, Parrot, Smith. STANDING: Miller, Hoffman, Robinson.



In recent years the Science Club has grown in scope and in members, and this year there was considerable evidence that M. H. S. does have a fine scientific organization. A very interesting assembly program was presented by the club at which Dr. Louis Spolyar from the Indiana State Board of Health showed slides and spoke on "Industrial Disease". On Edison's 100th birthday several types of electric lights, lamps, tubes, and radio sets were on display near the main entrance. The general club officers are Chad Smith, president; Mike Yacko, vice-president; Walter Robinson, Sergeant-at-arms; Phyllis Bloomer, secretary-treasurer; and Virginia Parrot, acting secretary-treasurer. Mr. Darl Wood is the sponsor.

COMMERCIAL CLUB BOARD
SEATED: Heeter, Amaral, Berry, Orser, Anders, Bickel.
STANDING: Healey, Chamberlin, Draper, Albright, Toomey Walsh, LaPorte, Speybroeck, Eby.

commercial club

The Commercial Club is the social off-spring of the Commercial Department whose instructors are the honorable advisors of the organization, with Miss Martha Miller the chief sponsor. The officers are Barbara Bickel, president; Donna Anders, vice-president; Shirley Orser, secretary, and Dorothy Eby, treasurer. The club's theme for the year was "MHS Alumni in the Business World". There were five business meetings at which alumni spoke, and some very lively parties. Again, the climax of the year was the annual spring banquet, which included a mixture of sorrowful farewells for the departing seniors and happy "hello, agains", for the alumni. A practice, temporarily halted by the war, was renewed this year when the Ball Band plant presented a cup to the outstanding commercial senior. The cup was previously given by the First National Bank.

forum club

SEATED: Healey, Steinke, Bickel, Kamm.
STANDING: Richardson, Rosenwasser, Brown, Futter, Moore.

To be a good citizen one must have a knowledge of world affairs, and current events; the techniques of public discussion; and the ability to discuss pertinent matters wisely. Such is the aim of the Forum Club, which holds sponsor hour meetings and a few night gatherings, interspersed with some social activity. Panel discussions are popular and various members of the faculty have given interesting lectures. Officers of this wide-awake group are Ronald O'Dell, president (who must have been sleeping the morning the picture was taken); Betty McCarter, vice-president; Charles Richardson, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Douglas Hall is the sponsor. The club is considerably larger than the picture seems to indicate.

senior hi-y

A fine organization for high school boys which aims to maintain high standards of character is the Hi-Y. In the senior division of the club there are 30 boys who each year prepare the program for the Mishawaka-Central football game. In cooperation with the St. Joseph County Hi-Y chapter, our junior and senior Hi-Y sponsors an annual formal dance, the "Swingheart Sway" which is a favorite of the Mishawaka students as it nearly always takes place near St. Valentine's Day. Another yearly event, purely local this time, is a get-together in one of the sponsor's homes when the fellows bring their girls and a general good time is enjoyed by all. Mr. Eldon Schalliol is the sponsor. Officers are Jack Brubaker, president; Don Orlosky, vice-president; Clem Leniski, secretary; Jim Dunlap, treasurer; Noble Rhoutsong, chaplain.

The Junior Hi-Y is exactly what its name implies, it is a junior branch of the Mishawaka Hi-Y. This group consists of boys in the Junior Class, and it assists the Senior Hi-Y in all major activities. Mr. Eldon Schalliol also sponsors this club, which has thirty members. Officers are Bill Cambron, president; Bill Poure, vice-president; Dick Schiffer, secretary; John Moore, treasurer; Carl Philotoff, Sergeant-at-Arms; Joe Stuller, chaplain.

stage crew

THIRD ROW: Shirk, Schnabel, Petersen, Hoerstman, Smith.

This seems to be an excellent opportunity to compliment the Stage Crew on its fine work in play production. In the past few years they have constructed some remarkable stage sets. They also handle the prop work for all programs that go on in the auditorium. This includes curtains, lights, and sound effects. Although the club does not have any officers there are a few boys who deserve special boquets: Ray Smith, Fred Gygi, Bob Schnabel, and Dick Bates. Mr. Everett Walsh has replaced Mr. Lowell Yaw as sponsor of this group.

Y-Teen Officers

Standing: Miss Buchanan, Ely.
Seated: Ganser, Stout, Roebuck, Vance, Barkes, Whitmer.

y-teens

Last summer the Girl Reserves went to court and had their name changed! Well, not literally to court—but the name was changed. That group has become the Y-Teens and each Y-Teen member is also a junior member of the Y.W.C.A. Boasting the largest membership of any organization, the Y-Teens is composed of various interested groups: Dramatics, Roller Skating, Swimming, and suchlike, sponsored by a member of the faculty or one of the girls' mothers. The club is now working in close contact with the Y. W. C. A. in South Bend, and this year a special project is the purchase of a Quonset Hut for a needy Y-Teen group in some war-ravaged foreign city. Miss Buchanan is the head sponsor and officers are Carol Vance, president; Jean Roebuck, vice-president; Joyce Whitmer, secretary; Betty Ely, treasurer; and Helen Ganser, chaplain.

SECOND ROW: Scott, Rudduck, Spear, Fulp, Steffens, McHenry, Evans, Stanton, Hinkson. FRONT ROW: M. Conley, Smith, Vance, Barr, Zimmerman, Wickline.

In keeping with other changes hereabouts, the C♯ Minor Club was organized to fill a need for a music club that many music students and music lovers felt. The club organized early in the fall with 10 charter members. It grew by leaps and bounds and by the second semester there were 30 members. Miss Hackett is the sponsor, and officers are Pat McHenry, president; Mary Lou Scott, vice-president; Ruth Evans, secretary; Beverly Rudduck, treasurer. The only requirement for membership is that each member must attend at least two concerts during the year.

veterans club

Along with many other high schools throughout the land, M. H. S. has its share of returned veterans. Boys who are no longer boys have resumed their seats in the same school and are being instructed by many of the same teachers, but with new faces surrounding them. They have done well in adapting themselves to the change of scenery and have certainly enlivened our halls. Looking down them we see numerous girls escorted by young men with crew cuts, males in khaki pants, blue dungarees, battle jackets, and whole wardrobes of military fatigue suits. We are proud of these boys who have come back to "take up the job" again. It was a large organization, 35 members, and fittingly Mr. Myers is the sponsor. The club is now considerably smaller, due to the fact that many of the boys have taken the G. E. D. tests and have received their diplomas during the year. The following boys have done this: Earl Potts, Harold Hoeflinger, Leon McNutt, Ivan Nelson, Carlton Wiseman, Malcolm Schench, James Holm, Gerald Darr, William Dunfee, Mike Mondich, Phillip Matz, Jr., Hewlet Gammon, Jr., William Van Emon, Roy Lee, Hugh Garman, Chester McPherson, Roger Clark, Maxine Balka, Camiel Vanden Abeele, Robert George, Jack Skeeters, George Richards, Oscar Baldwin, George Taylor, Garold Elliott, Homer Stethem, Edward Stutz, Billy Slabaugh, John Davidson, Robert Osborn, James Norton, Robert Smith, Charles Weikel, James Beck, Edward Bohdan, John Powell, Rollo Price, James Johnson, Richard Evans, Carl Hendricks, Dominic Trimboli, David Emerson, Roger Frank, John Truckowski, Dominic Marando, George Van Bruaene, Frederick Fechner, Carl Rowe, Russell Keefer, Walter Carter, Anibal Romeu.

Loyal and willing students are our hall guides. All during the day they run errands, take messages, and help visitors. This is a cosmopolitan group for in it are A students , are C students, sophomores, and seniors. It is a large organization for each hall guide post must be manned each hour of the day and the big task of managing this club belongs to Miss Helen Stoddart. Officers for the first semester were Dick Miller, president; Roberta Campbell, vice-president; Marilyn Stout, secretary-treasurer. Second semester officers were Pat Hartman, president; Jim Leonard, vice-president; Rita Snyder, secretary-treasurer.

FIFTH ROW: Blanford, Schelle, Duncan, Rafferty, Callahan, Thompson, Sobrero, Goossens, Canapeel, Kolaskey, Miller, Komick, Sime, Davis. # senior class play

On March 20-21 the Senior Class presented "The Imaginary Invalid", a satire on doctors, by Moliere. It is a rollicking comedy of a man who imagines himself ill and the complications that arise when he tries to marry his spirited daughter, against her will, to a doctor's stupid son. An outstanding attraction was the elaborate reproduction of a 17th century French sitting room. The stage was authentic and lavish, featuring hanging chandeliers, gold draperies, tapestries, and gilt furniture. Credit goes to Miss Davidson, her cast, committees, and the stage crew. Members of the cast were Bob Futter, Phyllis Albright, Carol Weissert, Merry De Roo, Ronald O'Dell, Alice Baldwin, Margaret Petersen, Pat Berry, Dixie Beck, Phyllis Pease, Arthur Brown, Jesse Karler, Charles Richardson, William Jennings, James Holderman, Charles Barnes.

junior class play

Against a background of mystery and murder, an excellent cast presented the Junior Class Play, "A Murder Has Been Aranged". A legend about a theatre in London where a ghost would appear if a dumb woman spoke, the eccentric Sir Charles Jasper, who believed in the supernatural, an inherited fortune, a dishonest cousin all combine to make a tense, exciting plot. Orchids to Miss Davidson for her wonderful interpretation of the play and to a fine cast for their presentation. A good opportunity for aspiring Thespians was provided when Miss Davidson added to her already busy schedule a dramatics class. M. H. S. is indeed fortunate to have such a gifted woman as Miss Davidson as its dramatic coach. The following students were in the play: Wayne Wilhelm Elliott Liff, Bill Etherton, Bob Logan, Mary Ruth Sandvold, Valerie Kamm, Joan Bowman, Betty Ann Toomey, Tom Moore, Lois Jean Gradeless.

thespians

This year the Thespians and the Speech Club presented "The Man Who Came To Dinner", a sparkling, witty comedy, that ran successfully on Broadway for several years. The plot centers around Sheridan Whiteside, who, during a stay in the Stanley household, does his best to upset the lives of the members of that family. This play was typical of all MHS plays, in that an excellent group of young thespians portrayed their parts with remarkable skill. Many high school students do have talent, and it is fortunate that it can be displayed to such an advantage. Cast of characters included Alice Baldwin, Phyllis Pease, Ray Wardell, Carol Weissert, Bill Etherton, Martha Fuller, Betty Sill, Donna Anders, Lester Guin, Margaret Petersen, Wayne Wilhelm, Bob Futter, Mary Ruth Sandvold, James Holderman, Jesse Karler, Clem Leniski, LeRoy Potts, Quinto Squadroni.

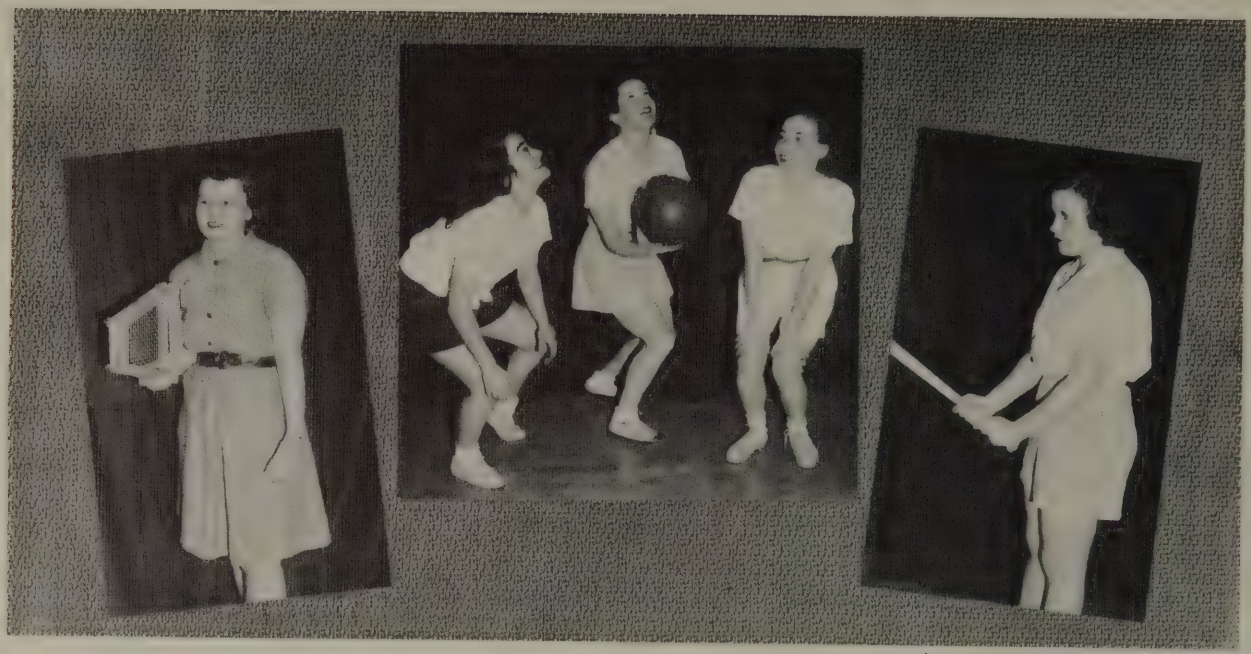
g. a. a. girls full of bounce and good spirits

The Girl's Athletic Association, which counts 124 members, is a lively organization enjoying the fun of noon tournaments and after school recreation. Officers this year are Betty Sill, president; Lois Middleton, vice-president; and Billie Hupp, secretary. Their sponsor is Miss Hazel Goodwin, who can keep up with the best of them.

The girls pursue such organized sports as speedball, volleyball, basketball, and softball. Hiking, swimming, bowling, skating, are the after school activities. Kicked shins and banged knees are all a part of the game and they like it.



Coyner | Middleton, Miss Goodwin, Sill | Callsen

Along these lines the girls work hard to earn their awards. As a reward for accumulating 150 points in physical exertion, the budding girl athlete is given class numerals. The letter M is awarded for 250 points earned, and the coveted state wall plaque requires a total of 350 points. The basketball tournament and league play were unusually successful this year. Sixty-seven girls enjoyed the fun, but high honors were carried off by the undefeated Cherubs.

Members of the Cherubs are Pat Callsen, Lois Coyner, Miss Goodwin, Billie Hupp, Lois Middleton, Betty Sill, and Jeanne Willingham. The Stinkers, Sally Fritz, Doris Miller, Jean Roggeman, Betty Vicsek, Betty Wilson, and June Wilson, hold second place honors.

Two exciting events of the school year are the initiation ordeal in the fall and the honor banquet in May. This fall some 30 girls were exposed to the initial torture. A G. A. A. girl must be an example of "Wim, Wigor, and Wytality", able to take whatever comes, though actually the tormenters aim to frighten the candidates a little. Then in the May they don their lady clothes and party manners to receive their awards. At the banquet, also, the officers and sports chairmen for the coming year are installed.

SPORTS

russell arndt ends fourteen years of coaching

Coach Arndt and his 1946 football squad may look back over the record books and be proud of themselves even though they lost 7 out of 9 games played. Many were the handicaps that the coach and his boys had to overcome. Only five boys from last year's varsity squad were on hand this year. The rest were lost through graduation. The squad was the lightest ever fielded by Coach Arndt. These, plus inexperience, were largely responsible for the mediocre season; but these factors aside, we can all be proud of this year's "edition" of the Mishawaka Cavemen.

On September 6, this light and inexperienced team proved capable of handling the task set before them on the gridiron as they overwhelmed a scrappy John Adams eleven on Tupper Field by a shut-out score, 12-0. A special feature was LeRoy Potts' pass interception and 47 yard run for a touchdown.

In the second conference tilt played on the School Field turf, the Riley boys set the Cavemen back to the tune of 18-6. Squadroni scored first on a 51 yard run but Riley crossed our line three times thereafter.

Mishawaka had little trouble disposing of the Redskins of Fort Wayne at Tupper Field by a score of 34-7, in another conference game. The Cavemen struck hard and fast with Carl Philotoff serving as the workhorse.

Mishawaka fell by the way side when they met the powerful Washington Panthers eleven on Tupper Field by a 33-0 score. Their hard running backs ran riot after Glod blocked Leniski's kick for a T. D.

The following week in another conference game, the Elkhart eleven won over the Maroons. Leniski and Potts scored both of our touchdowns on passes from one to the other but a larger Blue Blazer team outscored them by one touchdown.

Column One: Philotoff, Potts, Roth, Sipress, Smith. Column Two: Squadroni, Triest, Van Bruaene, Vervaete, Zappia.

Varsity players whose pictures appear only with the squad: Bohdan, Luczynski, Luxenburger, Mathias, Michesl, Miller, Robinson, Roggeman, Wurster, Zehring.

A strong and heavy Libbey, Ohio, team came to Tupper Field and was supposedly a 65 points favorite over Mishawaka. Acting head coach John Sohne's charges put on one of their best shows and held the Ohioans on even terms for three quarters, but finally lost 32-20. Potts was the Maroon "Caveman" in this game.

The annual Central-Mishawaka game played at Notre Dame Stadium was really a thriller. The Bears started strong and the Maroons finished that way, losing out 34-24.

The boys took their annual season trip, this time to Louisville, Kentucky where they met a powerful Male High School. The boys played hard for their last game but lost by a touchdown, 13-19.

Mr. Russell Arndt resigned his head coaching job at the end of the 1946 football season after illness had forced him to hand his football duties to an assistant in the middle of the season. Mr. Arndt had been in ill health for the last five years and since the extra responsibility of athletic competition was undoubtedly preventing a cure, it seemed necessary for him to give up football.

Mr. Arndt came to M. H. S. as head coach in 1933. For five years prior to his appointment he had donated his services as line coach; and during two of those years Mishawaka Cavemen were undefeated. Since 1933 he is responsible for the only state championship in Mishawaka history. His teams won several conference races besides being several times runners-up in conference play.

In his 14 years of coaching, Mr. Arndt estimates that some 1750 boys have been out practicing football. His teams have played 123 games, of which 80 were victories, 8 were ties, and 35 were defeats. The resulting percentage, 682 has yet to be equalled by another coach of Indiana high school football.

maroons field unpredictable five

There was a new coach at the helm of the MHS basketeers in the person of Victor Wukovits who came straight from the Navy. He is the third coach the present varsity team has worked under during the last three years, and he can feel well satisfied that the Cavemen finished up in fourth place in the Conference, with six wins against four defeats for an even 600 average in conference play. The season average was 500, for they won 10 out of their 20 games.

The hardwood boys lost their first four games to the John Adams Eagles, Central of South Bend, Lew Wallace of Gary, and Plymouth before they discovered how it ought to be done. Thereafter, in their first five conference games, the Cavemen were undefeated and the black horse of the Conference until they met North Side of Fort Wayne on their opponent's floor. Those North Siders drubbed the Cavemen by an impressive margin.

Central of South Bend handed the Cavemen a defeat, as did LaPorte and Michigan City. But as defeat came, so came victory and when the boys went to Auburn, they won over a stiff quintet and came home to defeat the Washington Panthers in the last conference game of the season. Froebel of Gary turned in one more victory against the Cavemen for the last disappointment of the season, for the basketeers of MHS then defeated Culver and Peru on successive weekends.

The annual Yuletide Tourney which had been held at John Adams in South Bend for the last few years was called off because it was considered too strenuous for the teams which participated, so the Cavemen accepted an invitation to play in a one day tourney at Huntington, Indiana, and went as far as the finals before losing out.

The Team At Tournament Time—Philotoff, Sheets, Freeman, Moore, Nichols, Orlosky, Harley, Kizer, Rhoutsong. Vernasco does not appear in the picture.

The annual Sectional Tournament at John Adams saw the Maroons bow out in the first game in which they met the Washington Panthers by a 43-40 count. The score see-sawed back and forth before the Panthers took the game in hand and settled the matter.

There were five seniors on this year's squad, four of whom had been varsity players the year before. Dick Kizer was the only senior who did not play varsity ball until last season. Don Orlosky has been a dependable player for the last two seasons and George Harley played two years of varsity ball. Noble Rhoutsong, who gained the conference individual scoring race last season with a total of 144 points, played varsity ball the last three seasons and was a regular the last two. Larry Gates played second team varsity ball the last two seasons.

The four juniors on the squad were John Moore, Lowell Nichols, Joe Sheets, and Joe Vernasco. The only sophomore was Dick Freeman, the biggest boy on the squad.

Seniors Don Orlosky and Larry Gates were elected the honorary co-captains .

freshman basketeers know their game

The freshmen basketball teams both piled up excellent records this year, and if these youngsters have their way, prospects for the net game are pretty bright here in Mishawaka High School. Coach Ward Baker is their mentor. On the varsity at center were Dominic Portolese and Max McCartney; at forward were Dick Bidlack, Edward Clark, Jerry Manuel, and Chuck Hartman; guards were Harold Caufman, Milton Ross, Dallas Gear, Don Coleman, and Wally Vernasco. This bunch of boys were certainly impressive this season when they won 13 out of 15 games played, and when they played the second time with their two conquerors, they avenged their only defeats. Thus they have beaten every team that they were pitted against. Furthermore, the freshman reserves made a clean sweep, winning 9 out of 9 games played.

* Conference Games.

Although the 1946 baseball nine didn't show up as well as expected, Coach Ward Baker is looking forward to a more successful 1947 season when he will field an experienced team. Only three regulars have been lost from last year's squad; Jimmy Steffof, "Boots" Oppelt, and Dick Kimmell. The first two boys were fly chasers, the latter a pitcher.

The Cavemen started the season off with a bang by winning their first three games from John Adams, Riley, and Central Catholic High Schools, all of South Bend. Central of South Bend tied the Maroons in the fourth contest. Washington of South Bend and Elkhart then dealt the Maroons their first defeats.

In conference play, the Mishawaka boys were pushed around to a certain extent, coming in behind in five of the seven games. The Maroons hit their stride only against Michigan City and the second game with Washington. The one thing the boys did that sounded a happy note to "Bake" was the decisive victory over the previously unbeaten leaders of the conference, Michigan City. This knocked the Red Devils into a tie for the title. In that game Dick Kimmet threw a neat three hitter and the Mishawaka nine finished in seventh place in the league play.

When the season ended, the Cavemen had won eight and lost nine games. Two games ended in ties. The prospects for the 1947 season, which is played too late in the year ever to be included in the current yearbook, are immensely brighter with the return of the battery and the complete infield, and one garden chaser. Ray Oppelt and Jim Steffof were elected co-captains.

| 28 | Elkhart | 78-2/5 | 30-3/5 |

The 1946 track squad, under the expert supervision of Coach Walter Thurston, may look back over the record books and pat themselves on the back with a considerable feeling of pride. All but one of the dual meets were won by heavy scores, and the Cavemen also took the Eastern Division meet.

Dutch's thinlies found the sixth spot the highest they could claim when they competed against the whole Western Division of the Northern Indiana Conference. The squad was plagued by sickness all during the season which had something to do with their having to be content with sixth place. They won eleventh place in the state meet at Indianapolis. All round superior balance was the main advantage of the team.

Outstanding seniors were Pete Benjamin, shot put artist; Frank Michels, Dwight Wygant, and Ralph Broman, distance men; Alphonse Dechamphelaere, a dash man. Other point makers who will be around next year are Dick Dennison, Larry Gates, Cloyd Partridge, and Don Orlosky. Mishawaka has a fine squad coming back for the 1947 season which is just getting under way as this book goes to press.

cross county state co-champions

CHAMPIONS — Healey, Harley, Captain Partridge, Coach Thurston, Haughee, Wood, Dennison. Kneeling: Manager Warstler.

Last fall the Mishawaka Cross Country lads, coached by Walter "Dutch" Thurston, won one of the coveted state championships. The meet at Indianapolis which determined the state championship was held October 26. The number of boys entered from all over the state was so great that two races had to be arranged, and the winner of each became a state co-champion. Anderson High School won one race, and Mishawaka, running in greater competition, won the second.

Dutch's boys won their opening meet with LaPorte on September 20 by a very impressive margin and at the early date already looked like a bunch of veterans. Six days later the Cavemen won their second victory over Goshen by a 39-20 count. John Adams of South Bend was next to fall before the rapid stride of the Maroons on September 29, and took a 39-18 shellacing when the first ten boys to come in were all Cavemen. On October 3 the Maroons went to LaPorte for their second meet with that school. Maroon enthusiasm was high and again they won, 45-15. The cocky Elkhart Blue Blazers were turned back 40-18 on October 7.

In a triangular meet held in Mishawaka on the afternoon of October 9 with John Adams, Goshen, and Mishawaka as the competing teams, the fleet footed Cavemen snared 15 points while Goshen and Adams were left with 59 and 58 points respectively.

On October 10 the Caveman B squad beat the Washington of South Bend A squad easily enough by a 39-20 margin and the regular cross country boys handed Central of South Bend a 44-15 defeat. Later North Side of Fort Wayne gave the regulars a good run, but the balanced power of the local boys proved too much for the North Siders and they lost 34-24.

The Washington A squad came to Mishawaka again on October 28 and were humiliated by the B squad Cavemen worse than the Cavemen were when they met the Panthers on the gridiron. The score read: Mishawaka 18, Washington 41.

On November 2 at Gary, the Maroons entered the conference meet undefeated and were out to keep their record clean. However, the pressure which comes from trying to maintain a winning streak plus a large slice of bad luck kept them from another win when Healey got sick and Dennison fell on the cinders. Even so, the Maroons finished third in the Conference.

intramural takes on new activity

Intramural basketball reached its peak this season in the thirty-five teams which vied for honors in the various leagues under the capable direction of Athletic Director Frank Steele and his staff of assistants.

There were sixteen teams playing in the two senior night leagues under the direction of Mr. Wukovits on Monday night and Mr. Prough on Tuesday night. Mr. Baker had charge of the freshman league at the high school, while Mr. Hill at Battell and Mr. Wight at Main took care of the junior high school teams.

. At the end of the season each league finished off with a tournament. Medals were presented to the winners, and one boy from each tournament was awarded a best sportsmanship medal. This completes one of the most successful season of intramural basketball ever handled by Mr. Steele.

While this is being written, it is planned to have all freshmen and sophomores who took part in the Intramural Basketball League compete for free throw medals at noon under the direction of Mr. Prough. Each boy is given 25 free throws, and there will be medals awarded to those boys who place first and second. At the conclusion of this, there is to be boxing each Friday noon in the gym. The weight classifications will be 105, 115, 125, and so on, and no boy may weigh more than four pounds above his weight class.

boys discover golf is fun

Mr. George Prough in his first year as golf coach is very proud of the fine work his boys have done the past season, and he expects them to do even better this spring. Since golf is such a popular adult sport Mr. Prough believes high school boys should learn it and this year's squad shares his enthusiasm.

In the fall season the Maroon golfers ended in second place in Conference competition with a record of four victories and two defeats to their credit. This spring the local golfers will meet all the conference schools, and there will be a state tourney in Indianapolis.

High lights of the season were the defeat of Central of South Bend, Dick Kiser's score of 79 at the LaPorte Invitational and the teams' sixth place standing in the Invitational.

The squad elected Dick Kiser and Mike Nemeth co-captains for the spring season. These two boys are veteran golfers and the mainstays of the squad.

Back: Wallace, Weaver, Krueger, B. Clark, E. Clark, Bengtson, Thurston, Culp, Tracy, Bailey, Coach Prough, Faini. Front: Becraft, Williams, Moore, N. Kizer, R. Kizer, Nemeth.

tennis novices have fair season

None of the six boys who came out for tennis last fall when Coach Hazell Goodwin issued the call had ever played tennis before, but they were able by hard work to rate fifth place in Conference standing at the end of the season.

Lack of experience was the main factor in the squad's mediocre showing. They lost to Michigan City and LaPorte before defeating Goshen 5-0. Then John Adams and Riley of South Bend trounced them before they got back on the winning side against North Side of Fort Wayne. The final meet went to Central of South Bend.

Standbys on the squad were Larry Phenegar, Allan De Poy, Jim Cullen, Herbert Dixon, Arthur Greenfield, and Seymour Rosenwasser. De Poy, Cullen, Dixon, and Greenfield will be back next fall with the much needed experience.

Phenegar, DePoy, and Cullen received letters because they won over half of their matches. Dixon won a monogram and Greenfield and Rosenwasser won numerals. Phenegar and Rosenwasser were seniors and will not be back in the fall.
